MEMORIAL DAY BOAT RACE

Over 1000 spectators were on the Mattapoisett River banks Memorial Day morning to watch this year's version of the river boat race. Many of the crowd followed the racers' progress down the 12 miles of twisting, turning river, over mud flats, over land across cranberry bogs. Many more were at the finish line to see the exciting climax of a contest won by a slim 10-second margin. Arthur Benner of Rochester and Otis Tripp of Acushnet scored the victory with a winning time of 1 hour, 55 minutes and 12 seconds, just nipping the second place team of Robert and Benjamin Hatch of West Wareham who turned in the time of 1 hour, 55 minutes and 22 seconds. Third place was captured by Carlton and Warren Vaughan of Mattapoisett in 1 hour, 59 minutes and 35 seconds. Two hours, 38 seconds was posted by Earl O. Phillips and Edgar Martin of Rochester to place fourth.

At a dance held that evening in the Rochester Grange Hall the winning team was presented the James Hartley Trophy and their share of the prize money. The second place team also received a share of the prize money. Presentation was by Russell Lawrence, chairman of the boat race. Music for dancing was provided by the Woodchoppers.

The Mattapoisett Fin, Fur and Feather Club awarded a trophy to a men's team of Warren Lenz and Peter Doran of Mattapoisett for being "good sports". Doran and Lenz finished the race in 5 hours, 34 minutes and 45 seconds for last place.

The boat race was sponsored by the Men's Brotherhood of Rochester. On the committee with Mr. Lawrence were Hoyle Demoranville, George LeConte, William Alves and Arthur Lionberger. Official starter was James Hartley who originated the race more than 30 years

MEMORIAL DAY EXERCISES

The lawn at the Mattapoisett Library was the gathering place for a large crowd of townspeople who watched the colorful observance of Memorial Day under a sun which appeared only for the ceremonies. The Florence Eastman Post 280, American Legion sponsored the program. Commander Joseph Marcellino greeted the spectators and introduced the guest speaker, Edward J. Norcott, senior vice-commander of the 10th District Council of the American Legion and member of the Hanover Post. Mr. Norcott spoke of the beginnings of Memorial Day following the Civil War when General John A. Logan, commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, designated it in 1868. He said that we have witnessed the growth of Communism that enslaves one-third of the globe in little more than 40 years time and we must be prepared to bear the burden of a long struggle. He said, "Today many Americans do not know what to do when the Flag is shown or the national anthem played." He called on those assembled to be not only patriotic but to be fiercely proud of their patriotism.

The opening prayer was by the Rev. Frederic

Fairhaven High School Band marches to the wharf after playing at ceremonies at the Library.

Reynard, pastor of the Mattapoisett Congregational Church. William Darrah, a student at Old Rochester Regional High School, recited the Gettysburg Address. Several selections were by the Fairhaven High School Band. The program closed with the playing of the Star Spangled Banner.

Wreaths were laid on the monuments on the Library lawn as a squad of naval reservists, commanded by Albert Heuberger, fired a volley of shots and taps was played.

Following the exercises the parade formed and marched to the wharf where ceremonies were held for those men who lost their lives at sea. The salute was fired and wreaths were thrown into the water. The parade then marched to Cushing Cemetery for ceremonies there. The parade then proceeded to the Legion Hall where refreshments were served to the marchers.

The firing squad and colors visited all other cemeteries after dismissal of the parade.

Parade marshalls were Major Charles Morgan and Major George White. In the line of march were Benjamin D. Cushing Post VFW of Marion, Fairhaven High School Band, Mattapoisett Legionnaires, Mattapoisett Auxiliary Police, Mattapoisett Brownies, Girl Scouts, Blue Angels Drum and Bugle Corps, Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts.

CHURCH SCHOOL CLASS HAS CAMPING TRIP

Highlights of a weekend camping trip by the 9th grade church school class of Mrs. Roland L. Morris at Mattapoisett Congregational Church, were excursions through Purgatory Chasm, over Quabbin Dike, to the Summit tower, the power house and over Wilson Dam, Amherst, the Berkshire Trail, a climb to the top of the observation tower at Florida, Hairpin Curve on the Mohawk Trail, the Natural Bridge of New England in North Adams and a tour of the Williams College grounds, Haystack Monument, beginning of the missionary movement in 1806, and to mineral spring in Williamstown, concluding with ascending Mt. Greylock where the group climbed the American Legion monument, visited Bascom Lodge and then camped for the night, following a cookout supper on Saturday.

Sunday morning following a campfire breakfast, they journeyed over Taconic Trail into New York State, crossed Vermont on the Molly Stark Trail from Bennington to Brattleboro, with a stop at the 6-State observation platform at Hogback Mountain, and attended the morning service at Cathedral of the Pines at East Rindge, New Hampshire, followed by an escorted tour of the museum. On the way home the group went to the top of Mt. Wachusett in Princeton. Ralph M. Plumley and Paul Morris were the drivers on the 500-mile 5-State tour. Class members who went

NEW ENGLAND FAIR - GOERS NEED GEOGRAPHY LESSON

New Englanders planning a trip to the Seattle World's Fair this summer could probably use a short course in geography, say travel experts at the Automobile Legal Association who note large numbers of families planning the trip during a two-week vacation.

"At the maximum of 400 miles each day, a family would require 16 traveling days for the round trip which would thoroughly exhaust even a professional driver. Even a three-week vacation is hardly enough to enjoy the fair and make the trip also. Unless a family can fly to the West, we are suggesting that four weeks is necessary which would allow for some extra sightseeing in the western part of the country."
